To all members of the UAGM Carolina - South Florida Branch Campus Community

Universidad Ana G. Méndez (UAGM), Carolina Campus announces the closure of its South Florida Branch Campus effective December 31, 2023.

The closure is part of the institution's long-range restructuring plan to streamline academic and administrative services. The South Florida Branch Campus had active students under the UAGM Carolina Campus academic offerings until the end of the summer semester of 2023.

The university will continue to provide student support services in accordance with all policies and services outlined in the Academic Catalog.
